

Angela Ramson is an Associate at Greenberg Traurig. She received her B.S. in Business Administration from Georgetown University and her J.D. from Howard University of Law.

Angela F. Ramson focuses her practices in the areas of labor and employment, general business, and commercial litigation. In her employment practice, Angela counsels and represents employers with respect to employment discrimination, sexual harassment, retaliation, leaves of absence, employee accommodations, personnel policies, wage and hour compliance, and employment agreements along with other labor and employment issues. Angela also advises employers in collective actions involving unpaid compensation and actions alleging violations of the FMLA. Angela's practice also encompasses areas of traditional labor law, including collective bargaining negotiations, unfair labor practice charges and representation case proceedings before the NLRB, union avoidance strategy and training, strike response and contingency planning, and grievance proceedings

Angela represents clients in a variety of complex commercial litigation matters including business and contractual disputes, trademark litigation, construction litigation, internal investigations, corporate compliance, and governmental regulation. Angela has broad experience with eDiscovery management and document retention.
